

GENERAL PROVISIONS

*Indiana Lyme Connect, Inc. (ILC) allocates a limited annual budget to Indiana physicians and healthcare providers seeking to attend the fall Annual Lyme Disease Conference* sponsored by the International Lyme and Associated Disease Society, ILADS. CME credit is available. For 2022, the conference has returned to an in-person format. The following provisions apply to all applicants for all such funding:*

1. The attached written application form must be submitted by July 20th, 2022.
2. A formal interview via phone will follow the written application. ILC will inform applicants of grant awards no later than July 30th, 2022.
3. First time attendees to the ILADS conference must attend the one-day Vector-Borne Illness Fundamentals course, at least two additional days of the Scientific Conference, and one CME credit to receive the full $1000 stipend.
4. Previous ILADS conference attendees must attend three conference days including the Scientific Conference and/or Vector-Borne Illness Fundamentals Course for at least one CME credit to receive the full $1000 stipend. Either virtually or in-person.
5. ILC will provide a $1000 stipend for the fall ILADS training/scientific conference which will cover registration. Applicants might consider an ILADS membership which provides a discounted conference registration fee.
6. Within thirty days after attending the conference, the attendee will submit ILADS conference confirmation, a brief formal report on each of the workshops attended, impact of the ILADS conference on his/her future personal healthcare practice, as well as any recommendations for furthering Lyme education in Indiana. The stipend reward will follow the submission of the report.

*ILADS will offer both a one-day Vector-Borne Illness Fundamentals Course (Sept 22) and a three-day Annual Scientific Conference (Sept 23-25) in Orlando, FL, called “Debugging the Body and Brain.” See ILADS.org for more information.
